

Design specialist High Technology Lighting has clinched an order from Calderdale Council to install lighting at the Edwardian Brighouse Library after its successful work during the £1.1m refurbishment of Keighley Library. At Keighley the company installed bespoke modular lighting with decorative pendants. The project was commended in the Bradford District Design Awards. The number of visitors to the library has increased by over 25 per cent since the refurbishment.

www.hightechnologylighting.com

(Publication - Lighting - September 2008)